Schedule COVID-19 Weekly Testing Now!

Schedule your company’s weekly testing today!

Are you prepared for the weekly COVID testing mandate? With the announcement of President Biden’s mandate that employers with more than 100 employees must require vaccination or show proof of weekly testing, HASC can help you maintain compliance.

We can offer weekly COVID testing at one of our conveniently located occupational health centers, at your job site facilitated by our medical staff, or at your location through oversight and training of your own staff.
